

Medical alert services

A medical alert service offers easy to use devices to reduce the risk of living alone. In an emergency while at home, the person with a medical alert device only needs to push a button to receive help. There are many providers of Medical Alert Services in addition to those listed. An internet search can help identify more providers.

Medical alert providers

Lifeline: 800-543-3546 or 800-380-3111 (consumers)
