Tip Sheet 🔆

New UpToDate Locations in Epic

UpToDate is a great resource for medical knowledge and evidence-based information. The new integration with Epic makes it easy to obtain medical knowledge and resources at your fingertips. This tip sheet will provide all of the new locations within Epic where UpToDate can be accessed.

Please Note: UpToDate links throughout the chart can be listed as the icon I or titled as Guidelines, Active Guidelines or UpToDate.

Try It Out

• With this integration there are many new links within Epic that will either take you directly to the main UpToDate browsing page, or to the "item specific" UpToDate page. For example, for a patient with peanut allergies you can access the "peanut allergy" UpToDate page right from allergies without having to leave the chart. See the steps below to learn more.

To Access the main UpToDate browsing page:

- Click the icon in the storyboard to launch the UpToDate window.
 or
- 2. Select the "Active Guidelines" option in the main Epic toolbar to launch the UpToDate window.

3. Alternitavely: Go to the Epic dropdown, select 'Reference Links' then 'Active Guidelines' to access the general UpToDate window.
